A Winning Partnership

Hertz and Hendrick Motorsports have enjoyed a formal partnership since 2018, with Hertz serving as a primary sponsor of driver William Byron and his iconic No. 24 Chevrolet Camaro ZL1 team in the NASCAR Cup Series.

"As a race car driver, I have a huge appreciation for performance vehicles," Byron said. "The fact that Hertz is offering cars of this caliber to its customers is really amazing. After personally driving one of the custom Camaros, it's as close as you can get to an actual race car out on the road. Hertz and Hendrick Motorsports have outdone themselves."

"We have a tremendous partnership with Hertz," said Hendrick Motorsports owner Rick Hendrick. "Cars are my passion, so seeing this program come together is especially exciting for me. We've never undertaken a project like this in the history of our team. These custom Camaros are going to be a huge hit with car enthusiasts and customers who are looking for a special experience. Hertz has truly taken this to the next level."
