The Hertz Ultimate Ride Sweepstakes brought five finalists to Charlotte, NC for a special experience and the chance to drive home with the Hertz-Hendrick Motorsports Camaro SS. The finalists, Gina Golshani of Oklahoma, Dion Hansen of California, Steven Ipson of Ohio, Tamra Mays of Texas and Phillip Abma of Florida were whisked away to Charlotte, NC for a two-night hotel stay with first class airfare for themselves and a guest. William Byron, driver of the No. 24 Hertz Chevrolet ZL1 LE1, turned laps with each finalist in a Hertz branded two-seater race car before a tour of the Hendrick Motorsports facilities. The five winners were then given specially coded key chains. The person with the key that started the 2020 Hertz-Hendrick Motorsports Camaro SS won the grand prize of the Ultimate Ride and $15,000 cash.

Abma was excited to take his two children, Leilani (12) and Ethan (8), to a city they had never been to but never expected to win the grand prize, which is valued at more than $72,000.

"Winning the car is something I cannot put into words," said Abma. "I was not expecting the car to start when I hit the button and I was beyond surprised when it did."
